Contents

2nd Regional IAP Conference
Hannah 1
Sadag Mohamed SC 3
Procedural discretion and its challenges
Sadag Mohamed SC 5
Challenges to procedural discretion
Andrew Gower SC 17
Prosecutions and human rights – are they mutually exclusive?
Evelyn Chebiga OBE 21
Commonwealth perspective on commonwealth protection: a Commonwealth perspective
Alice Wiltsie 27
Asset recovery – a practical example from Queensland, Australia
Barbara Lunde 33
The role of prosecutors in ensuring human rights compliant responses to terrorism
Anton de Plevi 37
Victims and witnesses protection: the way forward
Sajiyi Broderick 43
The prosecution and human rights - from the general to the particular
James Gwakirje SC 49
Preparing for privacy trials in Mauritius
Anna Nnam 53
The effective use of asset recovery
Jake National 59
Prosecutions and human rights – are they mutually exclusive?
Ali Gobey 65
Prosecution of piracy cases – the Kenya experience
Alexander M. Mwila 71

Articles
What is wrong with bribery? A comparative analysis of United Kingdom and Nigerian anti-bribery statutes
Abiyin Osahor-Ade 81
Can there be a human rights approach to international intervention?
Jihad Mitri 105
The human rights duty to protect: an issue in the context of denial and disparagement sufficingly compelling factors to override a defendant's right to counsel under South African law?
Adam A. Nnadi 119
A comparative analysis of the U.K. and Commonwealth Caribbean approach towards legitimate interception
Alice Elise-Rodriges 149
This evidence is a 'junk' in Nigeria under the New Evidence Act: an old wine in a new bottle?
All Baba and P.O. Okafor 163
International humanitarian law in the Commonwealth
Judicial decisions
Book reviews